WELCOME TO TORTILLA FLATS!

Welcome to our world, a sanctuary that has taken a long time to create. An environment where people thrive, and cultures meet. A place where stories are told, and connections created. We appreciate your patronage, and are proud to be of service to you and your loved ones.

♥♥♥ Tortilla

6 THINGS YOU MAY NOT KNOW ABOUT TORTILLA FLATS ...

- 1. It is our experience that a drink before dinner is an invitation to wind down, relax and open up, give your body and mind a break, including that of your companion. Our drinks are made to be enjoyed with interesting ingredients, full of flavor whether they be shaken or stirred, mixed with love and care. The alcohol is high, the price is not.. Let us know which one you prefer and we will be there on the double!!*
- 2. We love the colors! At the last consensus, we had more than 14 nationalities represented among our 26 employees. Catch us on the right day, and you may be served in Danish, English, German, Spanish, Thai, Hungarian, Persian, Tamil, Polish, Arabic, Russian, Latvian or Ukrainian.*
- 3. Our colleagues are by no means experts, and the vast majority have no previous industry experience, prior to their arrival at Tortilla Flats. They were hired for their smiles and warm personalities - the rest comes through a rigorous training 'from scratch'.*
- 4. We are a family restaurant - but not in quite the same way as the Golden Arches. Tortilla Flats is operated today by the same family that established it, and the second generation has been at the wheel since they could drink from a bottle. But the family extends beyond the clan. Employees dating back to the early years are still coming 'home for Christmas' (and at all other times) to eat good food, and relax The Tortilla Way.*
- 5. Since opening our doors back in 1987, our menu has evolved to accommodate and satisfy all of our guests' desires. In addition to the many wonderful Mexican dishes, we also have a large selection of steak, fish and vegetarian dishes. Are you allergic? Don't worry - you won't be leaving hungry. Please let our staff know, if you have special needs to be taken into consideration. We are happy to assist. Gluten-free dishes are marked.*

Wines

*Wine is constant proof that God loves us
- and wants to see us happy*

Benjamin Franklin

Wine is like honey to the soul, but the world of wine is a jungle and we are by no means experts. A wine is usually valued by price and not by flavor which is a shame. That being said, nothing is wrong with our tastebuds, and we feel that we have chosen some amazing wines that compliment our food very well - all at very affordable prices.

Because we consider wine to be poetry in a bottle, to help describe ours, we have been blessed with the assistance of our friend and poet, Mr. Keith Thomas Lohse.

Keith is our friend and knows nothing about wine, but he loves to drink it. Sometimes maybe a little bit TOO much. We asked him to taste ours, because we think that it's more fair like that: to get a true wine lovers opinion, rather than a 'bone-dry' expert's from Paris or Burgundy.

The wine glasses on the table come straight from Mexico and are made from recycled glass. We are aware that they do not always deliver the best drinking experience, so for the connoisseur, we do have other options - just ask.

We pour the first round. Forgive us if we miss the next.

Enjoy!

OUR WINEMAKERS

HALLER VINE

"For more than 25 years we have been importing Estate-bottled wines from all over the world. Our aim is to provide our customers with wine from the leading producers and districts, but also to find new and exciting wines from the lesser-known, interesting regions."

PROPPERIET VIN IMPORT

"We have never and will never compromise on quality. It is neither of interest to us where the wine is produced or what happens to be trendy. When you buy a wine from us, you can be sure that the demands we place on ourselves and our suppliers is far above the norm. We WILL NOT disappoint!!"

SPARKLING

SPUMANTE ROSÉ

Extra Dry

Monte del Fra, Veneto

.....kr. 299,-

MÖET & CHANDON BRUT IMPERIAL

Champagne, France

.....kr. 599,-

KRUG GRANDE CUVEE

Champagne, France

.....kr. 2999,-

“This Spumante is a most dominant force. It transforms your uncle into a slaving thoughtless aunt. It's a divine mouthful of mature and wonderful berries. Pure-bred Italian, bubbly arrogance.”

Corvina and Rondinella: A delicious aroma of raspberries and strawberries with a soft, rounded flavor.

“Let me be honest: I do not know anything about champagne, but I have participated in a lot of New Year's eves, and everybody knows THAT is fun. This one tastes about 3,5 metric tons better than any I have ever had before: sweet as my mom, serious as my father, and just as cheerfully exhilarating as they say the summer of 1977 was.”

“This is the heavyweight: The young Mike, Socrates at the summit, the total weight of all the iron Schwarzenegger has ever lifted. About a kilo's worth of Western civilization's finest abilities. The questions are: dare you? And should you?”

Krug is as close as you can get to the ultimate Champagne. It's only made in the best of years and is a minimum of 12 years in the making.

ROSÉ Wines

“ BARDOLINO CHIARETTO, Monte del Fra,
Veneto, Italy Kr. 199,- / 299,- ”
Your date for the summer, and for your dreams. A wonderful Italian.

“ LA FLOR ROSE, Malbec
Pulenta Estate, Argentina Kr. 349,- ”
Out on the pampas, dancing tango like a gaucho and seducing the world!

WHITE Wines

“ FURD, Pinot Gris
Melanie Pfister, Alsace, France Kr. 199,- / 349,- ”
Pineapple in your nose... green apples on the tongue. A party of a wine for seasoned fish dishes, poultry or cheese... a real Furd. Sweet richness and slightly spicy flavour.

“ RIESLING VOM BERG, Schmitges, Germany Kr. 325,- ”
A good companion for any knife fight or even better: a freshly caught skinny forest salmon with an underbite. These are drops of snow-white pride.

A mineral wine with a nice balance between acid and fruit.

LUGANA, OTTELLA, Trebbiano di Lugana
Veneto, Italy Kr. 199,- / 360,- ”
Passionate Italian sunshine, at a price far below what a sexy, red Fiat Cinquecento cost back in 1975. Tempting, almost sensual acidity and a feeling of being buried knee-deep in the Mediterranean with someone you love dearly.

Beautiful peachy sweetness, and fresh citrus acid.

CHICKEN SHIT, Chardonnay
Frankland Estate, Australia Kr. 349,- ”
Who is Chicken Shit? Organically raised Guinea Fowl form the basis of this enchanting drink... a perfect eco-system from bird to soil to vines to wines....refreshing and pleasing.

Creamy balance between acid and minerals.

“ SANTA CECILIA, Chenin Blanc
Baja California, Mexico Kr. 79,- / 175,- / 299,- ”
If you take a sip, then you will have two and then seven until you finish the bottle... that is why everyone loves you. Because your judgement is impeccable.

LA CETTO, Petite Sirah Private Reserve Baja California, MexicoKr. 399,-

“Wild lion-like luxury in your glass. This is plush, luxurious and possibly a little too much affectation in the “wow, look-at-ME kind of way”, but when even a relatively simple dish like the Chimichanga was once reserved for kings, why should the wine not be also? ”

Dark as ink. Heavy with sweet fruit and a spicy aroma.

LES PLANELS, Syrah, Château Maris BIO

“Languedoc, FranceKr. 479,-
 “The name says it all. We obviously distance ourselves from the language, but it IS damn good. This wine will fly you to the moon, and set your inner poet free. Warning: suddenly you’ll be married and have three children. In vino veritas, as they say.”

From a biodynamic vineyard in Minervois. 15 months on oak casks. Rich and intense.

RIPASSO CLASSICO, Corvina, Rondinella, Molinara Corvina,

“Rondinella, Molinara..... Kr. 199,- / 349,- / Magnum 699,-
 This red cousin will take you traveling. It lifts you out of your everyday hustle. You can almost feel the Adriatic blue swells on your pale ankles, and it helps you focus: it’s on your plate that everything important happens.”

Plenty of fruity sweetness, deep tones of fruit, and a long, deep aftertaste.

GEMEL, Rosso Veronese, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon,

“Corvina Veneto, ItalyKr. 325,-
 Grown in soil where Frank Sinatra’s forefathers and mothers once sang their ‘Thats Amore’. What are you waiting for? Let the festive fireworks begin at the best place in the world: your mouth. I dare say, if you have any regret, tell the waiter to get you a garlic bread for free.”

Blackberries, black currants and marzipan. Aftertaste of licorice.

EPSILON, Coalsack Shiraz

“Barossa Valley, Australia.....Kr. 389,-
 The taste of the outback. This is not a place to linger around. The percentage is high, the taste strong, and this wine will beat your $100 dollar boeuf to stew. Upon reaching the bottom of the bottle you’ll get slapped by Crocodile Dundee, and finally wake up naked in Hamburg.”

The way an Australian Shiraz should be. Dark and compact, with an oily richness.

LA FLOR, Pulenta Estate, Malbec Mendoza,

Argentina Kr. 349,-

“Look at your husband and if you are a man then look at your woman. Deeeep in the eyes. Take a sip, then one more. Then you'll kiss, eat, go home and make the baby. Think about it. You've discussed this for months, and the only thing missing was a sip of La Flor? There you have it, the real power of wine!”

Full-bodied, fruity wine with aroma of dark berries, and a touch of pepper. Good fruity sweetness, long finish with a little English licorice. A wine for heavy dishes.

“GRAN CORTE, Pulenta Estate Mendoza, Argentina

..... Kr. 599,-

“Che Guevara had a glass of exactly this mercilessly fine wine in his hand when he got playful and shouted 'Oh well, these imperial Bolivian troops can't hit me anyway!' Until they could. Rebellious and cigar-like, camouflaging ferocity.”

Almost black. Black currant, cigar box, chocolate, vanilla and a little mint.
Large mouth-filling fruit flavors.

ADEMÀN CARABIZAL, Tinta de Toro, Tempranillo

“Toro Viñaires, Spanien Kr. 299,-

Enjoy... Connoisseur... Player... Highroller. The best gamble is when you are not aware that it is a gamble. Just enjoy the experience... every experience that life has to offer.”

Violet berries, roses, with a hint of vanilla.

SANTA CECILIA, Cabernet Sauvignon Baja California,

“Mexico Kr. 79,- / 175,- / 299,-

Any other place, you would hear how noble this grape is and with bold letters how they had been aged in oak casks in limestone caves under exotic, distant mountains. We are not like that. We just serve quality wine.. now also with Sombrero!! At a price that you cannot resist.”
